Saturday Amusement.
The advance sale of seats which began at the Grand yesterday for the engagement of Mrs. Langtry indicates large and fashionable audiences, as there is evidently much curiosity to see the lady to the plays she is to present here. On Monday evening she will appear as Lena Desmond in "As in a Looking Glass," and on Tuesday evening as Pauline in "Lady of Lyons." Her company is a capable one. "He, She, Him and Her," which George H. Adams, Miss Tonia Hamilton and their company will present at English's the first part of next week, is said to be one of the most amusing and original comedy productions on the stage. It has been a hit everywhere. Seats are now on sale for it.
"Fair Play" will be seen for the last time at the Park to-night. Next week comes Harry Amier in "A Living Lie" and "Counterfeit."
Not a Considerate Democrat.
Early in the afternoon, yesterday, the tall, thin coach was brought out and crowded with enthusiastic Republicans. It was given a whirl over the North Side. On North Meridian street it met a funeral procession on its way to Crown Hill cemetery, and the word was passed around that all demonstration and cheering was to cease until a sufficient distance had been covered in order that due respect might be paid, which was obeyed to a man. As the coach neared the last of the open hacks, however, a man arose in one and in a hasty voice offered three cheers for Cleveland, frantically waving his hat at the same moment. It is needless to say that his proposition did not receive any response from either side.

College Fund Loans.
The Auditor of State is preparing a delinquent list of the borrowers from the college fund. About 300 loans have been made out of this fund, and on some of them the interest has been delinquent for two years. The Auditor desires to have it paid at once, in order to avoid going to extreme measures in collecting it.

HOW THE RETURNS APPEAR

Footings of the Vote on Tickets from Electors to County Commissioners.

The Republicans Get the Circuit Judge and the Coroner, but the Bulldozing Democrats Claim All the Other County Offices.

The Marion County canvassing board did not complete its work on the returns of the election until nearly 7 o'clock last evening, after being in continuous session over thirty-two hours. The canvass was completed at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, but owing to various hindrances, and such a mixed vote, it took all day to make the footings. The columns were added by Harry S. Schlotzhauer, a Republican, and Conrad Mueller, a Democrat, and it took them several hours to agree, after they supposed they were through. The only incident in the session of the board, after midnight Thursday, was the protest filed against the counting of the vote in the fourth precinct of Wayne township. The protest, supported by affidavits, set forth that twenty inmates of the county poor-farm, who are incurably insane, were voted by Superintendent Williams. The board, of course, refused to notice the protest, and in accordance with the precedent established by Bernheimer, the vote was counted as it appeared on the face of the returns. There were a few changes made in the count of the vote of the out townships, and the gainers were Mitchell for prosecutor and Wagner for coroner.

On the face of the returns the Republicans elect only Dr. Theodore A. Wagner, coroner, and Hon. John V. Hadley, circuit judge. The returns show that the bulk of the Union Labor vote went to the Democratic party, while the third-party voters, who came from the Republican, either voted their ticket straight or scratched in favor of the Democrats. It was by their vote that Mitchell secured a majority on the face of the returns. There was an third-party candidate for prosecutor, and Mitchell received the entire strength of that vote, about 400. The vote of the several candidates is as follows:

The Prohibition and Union Labor vote did not vary much through the county ticket. That of the former was 300 on sheriff, 350 on treasurer, 305 on coroner, 305 on surgeon, 396 on State Senator, 485 on the legislative ticket, 333 on joint Representative, 333 on commissioner

First district, and 333 for commissioner of the Second district. The Union Labor vote was 36 on sheriff, 46 on treasurer, 48 on coroner, 50 on surgeon, 51 on joint Senator, 57 on Representative, 51 on commissioner in First district, and 50 on commissioner in the Third district. For joint Representative no Union Labor candidate was supported. Mr. Curtis seemingly securing the entire vote.
The total vote of the county was 35,112, divided as follows: Republicans, 17,139; Democrats, 17,137; Prohibitionists, 399; and Union Labor party, 57. General Harrison carried the city of Indianapolis by a plurality of 156, and General Hovey, and nearly all the State ticket, by smaller pluralities. The Republican vote in Indianapolis was 13,326, and the Democratic vote, 13,710, thus giving General Harrison his plurality in this city.
The majority of Hadley for judge in Hendricks county was 1,211, and Sullivan's majority in this county 1,168, thus giving Mr. Hadley a majority in the two counties of 43. Fischer, for prosecutor, did not receive as large a majority in Hendricks county as Mr. Hadley, it being but 1,050. Mr. Mitchell received 1,202 in this county, thus giving him a majority in the two counties of 132.

The Official Vote.
The following is the official vote in detail for presidential electors, Governor and Congressmen, cast at the election Tuesday, Nov. 6, 1888, as canvassed by the canvassing board Thursday Nov. 8, 1888. The electoral vote is that given on Shackleford and Cobb, and while the vote on the other electors varies some, there are no material changes. The vote on Governor also corresponds very nearly with that for all the other State officers.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR ASSEMBLY.

Annual Meeting of the National Organization in This City Next Tuesday.

Some of the delegates to the General Assembly of the Knights of Labor of the United States, which convenes in this city, Tuesday are expected to arrive to-night. The Grand Hotel has been selected as headquarters. All the general officers and nearly all of the 150 delegates have engaged rooms there. Word was received from Master Workman Powderly and the secretary, John W. Hays, yesterday, stating that they would probably arrive to-night. The sessions will probably be held in Masonic or Marmont Hall. As there are several matters that will likely bring on prolonged discussions this year, it is likely that the assembly will be in session longer than usual. The majority of the delegates will come from Pennsylvania, New York and Illinois. The basis of representation is two delegates for every twenty thousand members of the order. Some fractional quorals that have been brewing for some time will be referred to the assembly and very lively times are expected. It is understood that the credentials of George Schilling, of Chicago, will be disputed. Schilling championed the Anarchist last General Assembly, and his ideas are opposed by the Powderly administration. Schilling participated in the great stockyards and street-car strikes at Chicago over the protest of Powderly, and in other ways he has acted contrary to the ideas of the master workman.
It is also probable that the using of the order for political purposes will come up for discussion. The action of Ed Gould, of this city, who attempted to transfer the influence of District Assembly 106 to the Democrats in the recent campaign will bring the matter up for consideration. A great many knights believe Gould should be expelled from the order for his action, and if not that, at least a reprimand. A general letter workman is to be elected at this session, and it is probable that Powderly will succeed himself. At the last meeting he positively announced that he would not accept re-election, but his friends say he will be induced to change his mind. There will be opposition to him, however, from delegates who have not agreed with him in all things.

Investigative Work House Records.
Mayor Denney, acting upon information that a number of prisoners had been released from the work house before their time had expired, with Sergt. McKinney, went out to that place yesterday to inquire into the matter. He found that a number of prisoners had been released, and two had escaped on Monday and Tuesday. In the cases of two of the prisoners, James Burgess and David Stewart, Sergt. Boone produced receipt papers, which the Mayor and Sergt. McKinney had no recollection of signing, though it was afterwards found that the sergeant had failed to note them in his record. It is claimed that several of the prisoners who would not fight were kept in the prison a day over their time. Mayor Denney will continue his investigations to-day.

Great Pictures.
The wonderful painting by Munkacsy, "Christ on Calvary," is still on exhibition at Plymouth Church. The exhibition will close next Wednesday night. As soon as arrangements are completed, the "Christ Before Pilate" will be placed in the same position and remain on view for a short time.

MINOR CITY MATTERS.

To-Day's Doings.
REPUBLICAN PARADE—Evening, 8 o'clock.
MUNKACSY'S PAINTING, CHRIST ON CALVARY—By Plymouth Church, day and evening.
PARK THEATRE—"Fair Play," afternoon and evening.
